

Proclamation

WHEREAS, NO MORE Week is a national event to engage individuals, nonprofit organizations, government agencies and businesses to say “NO MORE” to domestic violence and sexual assault and to make this initiative a priority year-round; and

WHEREAS, Hawai‘i Says NO MORE is part of the NO MORE national movement represented by a signature aqua blue vanishing point, which originated from the concept of zero—as in “no more” domestic violence and sexual assault anywhere in our relationships, families and communities; and

WHEREAS, Hawai‘i Says NO MORE is a statewide campaign to raise awareness, encourage conversation and stop domestic abuse and sexual assault in Hawai‘i; and

WHEREAS, Hawai‘i Says NO MORE expands national efforts on a local level across all of our islands and reflects Hawai‘i’s unique culture and community values of aloha, pono and ‘ohana; and

WHEREAS, over 500 domestic violence survivors seek support from programs in Hawai‘i every day; and

WHEREAS, Hawai‘i Says NO MORE encourages everyone to engage in talking about issues to help end domestic violence and sexual assault in our state and throughout the country; and

WHEREAS, in line with this year’s theme, “Change Happens Here,” Hawai‘i Says NO MORE works to create a culture of safety, equality and respect in our communities;

THEREFORE I, DAVID Y. IGE, Governor, and I, JOSHUA B. GREEN, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai‘i, do hereby proclaim March 3-9, 2019 as and acknowledge the invaluable contributions of this unique coalition of organizations, agencies, businesses and individuals that raise awareness of both the problem and the available help for victims and ask the people of the Aloha State to say NO MORE to domestic violence and sexual assault and make change happen here.

Done at the State Capitol, in Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai‘i, this twenty-seventh day of February 2019.
