MICHAEL A. DAHLIG, MANAGING DIRECTOR

Mayor's Emergency Rule #17

This rule is in accordance with the State of Hawai'i Twelfth Proclamation, and adopted pursuant to HRS § 127A-25. This rule has the force and effect of law. Violation of this rule is a misdemeanor, subject to penalty per HRS § 127A-29.

Definition

The following definitions and any related definitions from Kaua'i County Code Section 8-1.5 shall apply to this rule:

"Hotel" means any building containing six (6) or more rooms intended or designed to be used, or which are used, rented or hired out to be occupied for sleeping purposes by guests when the rooms are open to the occupancy by the general public on a commercial basis whether the establishment is called a hotel, resort hotel, inn, lodge or otherwise which rooms do not constitute dwelling units.

"Motel" means a group of attached or detached buildings containing rooms, designed for or used temporarily by automobile tourists or transients, with garages attached or parking space conveniently located to each unit, including auto court, tourist court or motor lodge, or otherwise, which rooms do not constitute dwelling units.

Quarantine Location

All persons entering the County of Kaua'i shall be subject to mandatory self-quarantine as provided in the State of Hawai'i Twelfth Proclamation ("Proclamation"). Persons traveling to perform critical infrastructure functions as identified in Exhibit B of the Proclamation must designate a hotel or motel as their quarantine location.

Penalty per HRS § 127A-29

Any person violating any rule of the governor or mayor prescribed and promulgated pursuant to this chapter and having the force and effect of law, shall, if it shall be so stated in the rule, be guilty of a misdemeanor. Upon conviction, the person shall be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.
