

Proclamation

WHEREAS, insurance and risk management protect families and property, help people recover from the crises in their lives, and give them peace of mind, security and stability; and

WHEREAS, insurance and risk management professionals have the expertise to proactively manage risk and prevent losses; and

WHEREAS, in March 1947, the Honolulu Association of Insurance Professionals (HAIP) was established, becoming the local chapter of the International Association of Insurance Professionals (IAIP); and

WHEREAS, HAIP serves its members by providing professional education, leadership development and networking opportunities to connect people of various career paths and levels of experience; and

WHEREAS, HAIP encourages community involvement and a desire for service by providing opportunities for members to work with organizations such as Kapi'olani Medical Center, the Waimea Valley Eddie Aikau Foundation, and the Hawai'i Children's Action Network; and

WHEREAS, IAIP Week is celebrated by members representing insurance and risk management professions across the United States, Canada, Puerto Rico, and other countries;

THEREFORE I, DAVID Y. IGE, Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim May 16–22, 2022 as in Hawai'i and ask the people of the Aloha State to join me in recognizing insurance and risk management professionals for their continued service to helping citizens protect and care for their business, personal property, health, and loved ones

“INSURANCE PROFESSIONALS WEEK”

Done at the State Capitol in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this second day of May 2022.

DAVID Y. IGE
Governor, State of Hawai'i
